

Parents: Right-To-Know

- Parents of all children in a Title I school have the right to request the following information:
 - Whether all teachers have met State qualification and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which they provide instruction;
 - Whether a teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which State qualifications or licensing criteria have been waived;
 - The baccalaureate degree majors of all teachers and any other graduate certifications or degrees held by the teacher, and the fields of discipline of the certifications or degrees; and
 - Whether the student is provided services by paraprofessionals, and, if so, their qualifications.
 - Whether a child has been assigned to, or has been taught for four or more consecutive week by, a teacher who is not highly qualified.
